Cortland, NY, April 9, 2007 – LiveWire Investigator™ receives 5 Star and Lab Approved Rating from SC Magazine Group Test. The Forensic Group Test conducted by SC Magazine has been completed and the results are available in the April issue of SC Magazine (www.scmagazine.com).

WetStone's LiveWire Investigator™ allows investigators to perform on-demand forensic examinations of live running computers and servers. This product was rated SC Magazine's Lab Approved out of the group of tested tools and received 5 stars for every factor.

"The evolution of live on-demand investigations is crucial to the future of digital forensic investigation and incident response. The SC Magazine review confirms both the quality and feature richness of our LiveWire Investigator™ entrée into this market, stated Kelly Ivey, Director of Marketing for WetStone Technologies.
